Sounding Voters' Sentiments in 3,000 Communities

We are fortunate in having readers in every State in the Union, and, in fact, in every part of every State, and a few weeks ago we called upon these friends to act as reporters or special correspondents and tell us how local feeling is running for and against the Presidential candi-

The two questions we asked our readers were: "Which was the most popular candidate in your neighborhood in 1912" and "Which is the most popular in 1916?"

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for October 28th, the feature-article gives an analysis of the replies received.

This "straw vote" is unique in that while it does not necessarily register the individual vote of those who responded, it is inclined more to reflect local feeling in the community in which the correspondent resides.

The "Digest" a Boon to Busy Men and Women

This is the age of speed. Everything has to be accomplished at high pressure. We go about life and business with the throttle wide open. As a consequence we have hardly a moment to spare for keeping abreast of what is happening in the world. The ideal news-magazine of today is literally one in which "he that runs may read." It must be terse, yet comprehensive, interesting, yet absolutely reliable, giving all viewpoints, yet advocating none. Such a newsmagazine is THE LITERARY DIGEST. Two hours' reading a week will enable you to master its contents, and, that done, you will be absolutely up to the minute on politics, the war, art, literature, science, invention-in all departments of human endeavor. And you may be sure that what you read is recorded faithfully, without bias or partiality. For the busy man or woman there is no magazine to equal it.
